PROJECT NO. 179

"LeGrand Ratekin House"

This old log cabin located 1 mile north of Mokane, Calloway County, Missouri, which was later covered with siding, was built in the year 1816 by Patrick Ewing.

Mr. Ewing was one of the pioneers to this section of the State. He came to Missouri from the State of Kentucky.

Miss Jane Ewing, daughter of Patrick, married LeGrand Ratekin and they resided in the house for some time. The place is very often referred to as "Old Judge Ratekin's House".

The property is now owned by H. Williamson

It is a one and one-half story log house covered with siding.

Information from: History of Calloway County and H. Ratekin (grandson).
